Understanding the Numbers

A plain-language breakdown of TAM, SAM, and SOM — and what they mean for Zinance

TAM Total Addressable Market · $17.3B

"The total size of the entire market Zinance could serve if it reached every possible customer in the US."

- → Covers the entire US Finance & Accounting Outsourcing industry — bookkeeping, tax compliance, CFO services, and financial ops
- → ~6.5 million US businesses fall into this category (SBA 2024 data)
- → The market is currently worth $17.3 billion and growing at 8.9% per year
- → Projected to reach $29B+ by 2030 — driven by AI, talent scarcity, and variable-cost preferences

SAM Serviceable Addressable Market · $3.1B

"The slice of the total market that Zinance can realistically target, given who they actually serve."

- → Filtered to US companies in tech, SaaS, and e-commerce only — with 10 to 200 employees
- → Group 1: 18,000–25,000 VC-backed startups actively funded at seed–Series B
- → Group 2: 90,000–100,000 high-growth bootstrapped SaaS & e-commerce companies
- → Removed ~40–45% unlikely to switch to an outsourced model → leaves ~65,000 reachable companies
- → At $4,000/month average contract value ($48K/year), this equals a $3.1B opportunity

SOM Serviceable Obtainable Market · $62M → $144M ARR

"The realistic revenue Zinance can actually win in the next 3–5 years."

- → Benchmarked against Pilot.com — best-funded competitor ($222M raised, ~1,000 clients, ~$27M ARR after 7 years)
- → Zinance needs just 2% of SAM by Year 3 and 4.6% by Year 5 — conservative targets
- → Year 3: 1,300 clients × $48K/year = $62M ARR
- → Year 5: 3,000 clients × $48K/year = $144M ARR
- → Bench's 2024 exit freed up 10,000+ displaced customers — immediate market opportunity

COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

COMPETITOR	FUNDING	EST. ARR	EST. CUSTOMERS	POSITIONING
Pilot.com	$222M	~$27M	~1,000	Premium startup bookkeeping + CFO
Bench (shut down 2024)	~$100M	~$30–50M	10,000+	Broad SMB bookkeeping
Zeni.ai	$47.5M	Growing	~500–1,000	AI-powered, startup-focused
inDinero	~$30M	~$10–15M	~500–1,000	Mid-market bundled ops

WHY ZINANCE WINS

📊 Fragmented Market
$17.3B market with no dominant player in the startup segment — wide open for a full-stack challenger.

💥 Bench's Vacuum
Shutdown in 2024 displaced 10,000+ customers actively looking for a replacement — immediate opportunity.

💰 Higher ACV

🤖 AI-Native Edge

Full-stack model (books + tax + CFO) commands $4K+/month vs. $500–$1,500 for point solutions.

Lower delivery cost than legacy firms, enabling better margins and more competitive pricing simultaneously.
